is presented to

on this mother's day, MAY 13, 2007

/// for adjusting to the relentless demands of motherhood by perfecting the skills of multi-tasking.... for being kind (mostly) even when you feel tired and fit-to-be-tied... for laughing (often) in the face of disaster, both real and imagined.... for carrying on with the tasks at hand (usually) even when it stretches you to the limit... and for generally trying to handle the role of "MOTHER" most days.

with love and admiration,
Everymom

p.s. love your kids. be good to yourself.
